Note.—The above are selected from the large number of addresses received, as having some special interest either of sentiment or language or form.

II. FIRST EDITIONS AND MANUSCRIPTS.

Following is explanation of the open pages:

The left hand page.
1st. Ham uncovering the nakedness of his father Noah.
Centre. Christ crowned with thorns.
2d. The children mocking the prophet Elijah.

The right hand page.
1st. Isaac carrying the wood for his own sacrifice.
Centre. Christ bearing the Cross.

52. Colored leaves from another copy of the Biblia Pauperum.

68. Illuminated Missal. Pyne Collection.

70. Illuminated Pontifical. Pyne Collection.

Notes.—As it was impossible to make any general exhibition of rare books at the present time, it was determined to restrict this exhibit to (1) a collection of first editions from a growing collection of early monuments of printing, and (2) a few examples from a collection of MSS. which is being made for illustrative purposes in the study of palæography.

III. PRINCETONIANA.

73. First minutes of Trustees, 1748. College Archives.

74. Watch of Vice-President Burr.

76. The Sesquicentennial Medal in gold. Morgan Collection.

81. Petition of Gilbert Tennent and Samuel Davies in the name of the College.

Notes.—The edition of 1752, both Edinburgh editions and the petition, are original copies and are in each case the only copies known. The Lond. 1754 ed. is a facsimile of the only known copy, which is in the British Museum. All are kindly loaned for the occasion by Wm. R. Weeks, Esq., of Newark.

A variorum edition of this General Account will be shortly published. This edition will be limited to 151 copies, of which ten will be assigned to Mr. Weeks for private distribution, and 141 will be distributed among contributors to the Sesquicentennial fund.
