Notes: 22 cm.
Item Number and Notes: [Item Number] Volkening 70. Inscribed by the author to HV: "Dear Henry, This dedication had as well gone into the other eight-except that the matter of time involved would have been less. Your encouragement, interest and effort has neither grown nor slacked off since that first meeting in the commodore 21 years ago-its been maximum right along. When people say in congratulatory tones, "So Henry Volkening is your agent," I have difficulty recognizing you. That's the word for it I suppose but i think of you as my friend, interested in my writing, thank God, but should the writing cease, I think the friendship wouldn't. And here's a pact for you to sign: not to stop agenting until I stop writing. You don't have to stop when I stop, but not before. So thanks for two decades- and here's high hopes for a third. This is written in the sunshine on the grassy slope where you and Natalie once sat- and which I hope you'll grace again. Until then with fond and happy memories, Jessamyn."
